

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mike Downs on 6/13/2008.

Claim 2 has been amended as follows:

2. (CURRENTLY AMENDED) A method for facilitating the purchase of fractional lottery tickets using a point-of-sale terminal, comprising:

using a point-of-sale terminal to determine a monetary value based on an amount of change due for a purchase ~~determining a monetary value;~~ allocating a portion of a ticket, the portion being based on the monetary value, in which the ticket is associated with a predetermined price, and in which the predetermined price is greater than the monetary value;

outputting a ticket identifier that identifies the ticket and a portion identifier that identifies the allocated portion of the ticket; and storing the ticket identifier and the portion identifier,

~~in which the step of determining a monetary value comprises:
determining a monetary value based on an amount of change due for a purchase.~~

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 2-5, 7-10, 14-16, 18-20, 37-52 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

3. Claims 2-5, 7-10, 14-16, 18-20, 37-52 are considered allowable over the cited art because the claimed invention includes the features of:

Determining a value based on change due and allocating a portion of a lottery ticket based on the value where the portion is less than the price of the full ticket and where the ticket portion includes a portion identifier. These features are not taught or suggested given the closest prior art of. These features are found in each of the independent claims 2 and 7. The closest prior art is Roberts which is a system to buy lottery tickets at a POS and which tracks the tickets by way of identifiers. And although known lottery systems such as the German lottery allow for purchase of less than full portions of a lottery ticket, the art does not suggest offering a lottery ticket portion based upon the consumer's change due.
